NOW, BOYS, LET
ALL PULL TOGETHER
And Help Elect Irvine and 9th District Will Be Represented.
Wise Will Lend Aid.

Norton, Va., March 30.—If the Democrats of the Ninth district will take a pull all together this time and elect Tate Irvine to Congress, they will certainly have the satisfaction of knowing that their district will have a representative the peer of any district in the state, and that is saying a good deal, when we come to think about it. There is Jones, chairman of the House committee on Insular Affairs; Carter Glass, chairman of the House committee on Banking and Currency; James Hay, chairman of House committee on Military Affairs; Hal D.
Flood, chairman of committee on Foreign Affairs. Besides, Senator Martin is chairman of the important committee on Appropriations; Senator Swanson, chairman of committee on Public Buildings and Grounds. Senator Owens, of Oklahoma, a Virginian, chairman of the Senate committee on Banking and Currency; Senator Lewis, of Illinois, a Virginian, is chairman of Senate committee on Expenditures in state department. A Virginian is President of the United States, and a grandson of a Virginian is President of the Senate and Vice-President of the United States, John Skelton Williams, a Virginian, is Comptroller of the Currency.
Never in the history of the grand old commonwealth, the mother of statesmen, has she ever had a more brilliant and brilliant array of representative sons. Proud of them! why certainly. What Virginian would not point with pride to such a body of men.
Then, what about the Ninth district? At this particular time we could not have named a stronger candidate than we have. Irvine, the finished scholar, a teacher in the universities, the able lawyer and statesman, the perfect gentleman—a man very much after the order of Woodrow Wilson, and withal, he is a man of the whole people, pliant, reasonable, kind, sympathetic. To know him personally is to see the real Irvine. He is safe. The Ninth needs just such a man in Congress at this particular period of our history.

DEPRESSED SPIRITS.
Everyone Has It Within His Power To Be Happy.
A celebrated French physician has said that "a man's liver is the barometer of his disposition." Every man and every woman know that the cheerful smile is a big factor in one's success.
Everyone should know that the dis-ordered liver is cause of ninety per cent of human ills. Lazy overworked livers are the prime causes of headaches, indigestion, constipation and depression of spirits.
But the inactive liver always warns by coated tongue, sour stomach, dull eye and even laziness. Heed your warning and you insure happiness to yourself and reflect it upon your associates. Calomel used to do. Modern day science has found a better way in CARSWELL'S LIVER-AID, which is a pure vegetable remedy on sale under guarantee or money refund at 50c. for large bottle. Ask John E. Jackson about it.

Large Timber Deal.
Freeling, Va., March 27.—The prospect of the early completion of the Cincinnati-Carroll and Ohio Railroad through Dickinson county is giving new life to the lumber industry. Ex-Senator Roland E. Chase and his brothers, Emory B. and Chas.
C., all of Clintwood, have just closed a deal with George W. Bair, sr., of Beckley, W. Va., in which they convey to him the timber on a 1,000-acre tract of land lying four miles east of Clintwood, the county seat of Dickinson county. The price received was $24,000. This is said to be the highest price ever paid in the county for a body of timber by the acre.

Kentucky Murderer Captured.
Freeling, Va., March 27.—Rufus Mullins, deputy sheriff of this county, arrested Coley Benton for whom a reward of $500 is offered by the state of Kentucky. The crime with which the man is charged was committed in Breathitt county, and under rather peculiar circumstances. It appears to have been a case of jealousy. It is charged that Benton saw another man carrying a woman for whom he had an infatuation across a stream, when he opened fire on the couple, with the result that the woman was killed outright. He was placed in jail at Clintwood, and will be held till a requisition can be made upon the governor for his delivery to the authorities of Kentucky.
Benton was at work on the pike when arrested. He had been employed there for a month or longer. He went by the name of Jones, but was positively identified as the man wanted by two men who had known him. He is apparently twenty-five years old.

CALOMEL IS A FORM OF DEADLY MERCURY.
Instead of Such Dangerous Stuff, It Is Recommended That You Take Dodson's Liver Tonic For Constipation.
Dodson's Liver Tonic was made to take the place of calomel.
Calomel is a form of mercury, a mineral and a poison. Dodson's Liver Tonic is an all-vegetable liquid—never harmful.
What calomel does unpleasantly and often with danger for constipation, Dodson's Liver Tonic does for you safely and pleasantly, with no pain and no gripe it does not interfere in any way with your regular business, habits or diet. You feel good after taking it.
The great success and wide sale of Dodson's Liver Tonic are the result of what it does for people. Its merit is backed up by a guarantee of "satisfaction or your money back," as John E. Jackson or the Hawkins Pharmacy will tell you.
Dodson's Liver Tonic was intended from the start to take the place of calomel. The public does so, accounts for the enormous increase in the sales of Dodson's Liver Tonic month after month.
Dodson's Liver Tonic "lives the liver", overcomes constipation agreeably and makes you feel good, and if you are not satisfied completely with it John E. Jackson or the Hawkins Pharmacy will hand your money back to you with a smile.
When you go to buy a family remedy don't fail to judge between the plain, simple truth about Dodson's and the loud claims of its imitators.
That the public does so accounts
for the enormous increase in the sales
month.

C. W. Alderson Dead.
Esquire C. W. Alderson died at his home in Meadow View, Monday at the age of sixty-nine years. The funeral services were conducted at Meadow View Tuesday in the presence of a large concourse of friends.
Mr. Alderson's death was caused by dropsy. He is survived by six children—four sons and two daughters. He was born at Lebanon, Russell county, Virginia, and moved to Washington county just before the civil war. He served during the war, entering at the age of eighteen. He was a son of Dr. Christopher Alderson, of Lebanon, Va., and is survived by one brother—Dr. J. D. Alderson, of Meadow View, and one sister, Mrs.
Mattie Preston, of the same place.
Mr. Alderson represented Washington county in the Virginia legislature in 1912.—Glade Spring Vidette.

The above deceased was well known to a large number of people in Tazewell and throughout the county. He was a brother to the late Col.
H. C. Alderson, of this place.

Headless Body Found.
The body of a man, supposed to be John King, of Jenkins, Ky., was found on last Friday near Glamorgan, a mining town in Wise county. The man had been murdered, robbed and decapitated.
His pockets were turned inside out and a suit case, found near the body, had been cut open and rifled. The body apparently had been in the woods for several weeks.

The man had been shot in the back and his head cut off.
The discovery was made by a dog owned by Goldman Perry. After an inquiry Perry was arrested, but he was released when he convinced the authorities that he knew nothing of the crime.

The authorities are determined to sift the murder, and detectives have been put on the case. The scene of the crime is lonely spot, frequented only by mines on their way to and from work.
Several persons who saw the body of the slain man were unable to identify it, but a card, bearing the name John King, was found in the dead man's coat pocket, and a similar one was in the suit case.

The Press.
Dear News:—
I remember telling the editor once upon a time that there were four great civilizers: the press, the pulpit, the public school, good roads. There are for us as we now live, these. I do not claim that I have named them in the order of their priority; but I am sure that each has a large view of important and far-reaching relations.
"Grave, If Not the Gravest," is the subject of Dr. J. N. Ivey's leading editorial in the Christian Advocate, a week or two since. When I read the heading in the list of the subjects discussed in the paper, I said: "What is this that is so grave?" Turning to the subject, I found it to be a discussion of the subject of the relation of the printing press to ministerial usefulness and the success of the church of Christ. He says: "The four prime agencies which the Holy Spirit used in carrying out the mighty purposes of God made plain and possible of execution by Jesus Christ, are absolutely dependent for their highest functioning power and results are the thing that we call the printing press.
And Dr. Ivey shows that every true picture of Christian success is a composite picture blending in form and reflecting in life, individual or corporate, the power of the preached word, the Christian home, the Christian school, Christian life. And he goes on to say the power which does more than all other agencies combined, because always at work, if for no other reason, yet receiving less help, less recognition of its contributions towards making human life sane, strong, and an enlightenment and blessing, is the religious newspaper. He says that, in effect, still, there is no doubt in the world, no reasonable doubt, but that the press is the leading factor today in the march of civilization. When the dream of printing came into the mind of Gutenberg it was of greater significance than when Franklin caught a spark of electricity from a thunder cloud by means of a key attached to the string of a flying kite; greater than that of Morse, who achieved the renown of being the father of modern telegraphy.
A good county newspaper is as important in its sphere as a religious journal in its sphere. I do not deny religion, but religion isn't everything; a good county newspaper, ably edited, would be better for a people than a poorly conducted religious journal, so-called, spitting spite and spleen at everybody that does not agree with its narrow and purblind policies. And I am attacking nobody. This is just a conception. You, Mr. Editor, are modest, and I will say this for you: you are doing a great work.
Yes, it is hard work, constant, exacting. No publisher of his own paper ever has an easy time.
I was wondering the other day amid all this canvassing for the religious papers, how many ever think of taking a subscription for the county paper or papers? Every family, rich or poor, where one member can read, ought, if at all able to do so, to take a county paper. I will act as agent for the Clinch Valley News or The Republican. I can do that, though not "a knight of the quill."
W. W. HICKS.

Give The Best You Have.
There are loyal hearts, there are spirits brave, There are souls that are pure and true;
Then give to the world the best you have.
And the best will come back to you.
Give love, and love to your life will flow.
A strength in your time of need;
Have faith, and a score of hearts will show
Their faith in your word and deed.
Give truth and your gift will be paid in kind,
And honor will honor meet;
And a smile that is sweet will surely find
A smile that is just as sweet.
For life is the mirror of king and slave,
'Tis just what we are and do;
Then give to the world the best you
have,
And the best will come back to you.

What Think Ye Of Christ?
To those who are in intellectual difficulties about the person of Christ, I would say, with Bishop Gore, it is your wisdom to drop everything for the time and go back to the very center—to Christ himself—and answer "What thinkest thou of Christ?" You are not infallible; but with the many conflicting voices around you, you must take the intellectual trouble to answer the question for yourself.
You must give your own answer.
Many a person drifts away from faith because of intellectual laziness.
Whatever you do, don't doubt by authority—that is, do not doubt because someone else doubts. Nothing can intellectually justify that. Do your own personal, intellectual best—make up your own mind. "What thinkest thou of Christ?"
If Jesus Christ is man,
And only man, I say,
That of all mankind I'll cleave to Him And to Him will I cleave alway.
But if Jesus Christ is God, And the only God, I swear I'll follow Him through heaven and hell.
The earth, the sea, the air.

why it suits particular people.

Liquor Traffic In Africa.
Recent reports show that in British West Africa the importation of spirits has swollen from 4,705,878 gallons in 1906, to 6,355,188 gallons in 1911. In French West Africa there has been an increase from 3,600,200 litres in 1908, to 7,303,215 litres in 1912. However, a new regulation of the Belgium government came into form in the Congo at the beginning of the year, prohibiting entirely the sale of distilled alcoholic liquors of all kinds to the natives, and the sale and manufacture of spirits has likewise been prohibited by Portugal in the Congo district of Angola. The duties on spirits in West Africa have been increased by Germany, France and Great Britain. In British West Africa local distilling and the importation of distilling apparatus has been prohibited, and in Southern Nigeria it has been decided to substitute a silver currency for the pernicious currency in gin.
